Not Sure? Don't open the door On Monday 5th March a national campaign was launched in support of Operation Liberal, which looks at ways to help all forces in the fight against distraction burglaries. As part of the campaign four poster designs were issued to each force for distribution around the communities they serve. Force Crime Reduction Manager Shirley Simpson said: "Each of the posters carries a very positive message and depicts an elderly person who kept out distraction burglars. They also feature four different distractions that burglars often use; claiming to be from the water board, an energy supplier, a police officer and a 'lost ball in garden' scenario."

A leaflet has also been produced, which will be sent to victims containing useful contacts and crime prevention advice. It will also contain information about how to sign up to the Energy Retail Association's Priority Service Register and Password Scheme. The leaflet will be available shortly. In the meantime, if you would like any 'Not sure? Don't open the door' materials to distribute to your members and residents, please contact your local policing team who will be able to supply these to you
